Consent To Disclosure of Return Information

Note: Prior to completing this Form, please be sure that you have reviewed the terms of this agreement.

This consent is valid only if the IRS designates me as unsuitable for employment AND the IRS must report its decision to the Office of Personnel Management (OPM). The IRS must report to OPM the reason for my rejection if the IRS has determined that I am not suitable for employment in any position with the Service. If the IRS' rejection of my application is based upon my prior compliance with the tax laws, this consent will permit the IRS to disclose to OPM the return information listed below. Additionally, if I choose to challenge this rejection before the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB), this consent will permit the IRS to disclose the return information described below to the MSPB for related proceedings.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notices -

The Service's authority for requesting this information is 5 U.S.C. § 301, and the authority for requesting your social security number is Executive Order 93-97. While providing this information is voluntary, failure to supply all or part of the information requested may result in rejection of your employment application. By providing the information herein and by signing this consent to disclose, authorize the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) to release my return information to the designated recipients. My returns and return information for the last three years will be reviewed in the evaluation of my suitability for appointment or employment with the IRS. This consent is made pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 6103(c), which permits the release of returns and return information, which would otherwise be confidential, to my designee. This consent is considered part of my application for employment with the Service and is subject to the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. § 552a.

We ask for the information on this form in order to carry out the mission of the Internal Revenue Service. We need the information to process your application for employment with the Internal Revenue Service. You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by I.R.C. § 6103.

The time needed to complete this form will vary depending upon the individual circumstances. The estimated average time is 10 minutes per response. If you have comments concerning the accuracy of this estimate or suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. You can write to the Internal Revenue Service, Tax Forms and Publications, SE:W:CAR:MP:T, 1111 Constitution Ave. NW, IR-6526, Washington, DC 20224.
